16 year-old Mary Durrett was last seen walking in the Museum District of Houston, Texas on December 7th 2017. This area is very close to the Texas Medical Center. Mary is in desperate need of her required medication. Mary has an 8" scar on her left thigh, and several scars on her arm. Mary was last thought to be wearing weathered-looking jeans with holes in the knees, a mustard-yellow cardigan sweater with possibly a maroon sweatshirt underneath, and tennis shoes. One side of Mary's nose is pierced with a stud, while the other side is pierced with a loop. If you have seen Mary since her disappearance, if you know of her current whereabouts or if you have any information whatsoever regarding her disappearance; please call the Houston Police Department at (832) 394-1840 – or call Texas EquuSearch at (281) 309-9500.
